Winfield built the S&S 34 moulds in 1967 or thereabouts and built their boats.

The Swarbrick brothers went to the UK and bought them, late 1968 or 69.

Swarbrick built their boats. They went broke in 1984 (Morning Bird the last of their boats) and Maybrook Marine on the Central Coast got the moulds. They built about 6-10 boats.

The moulds sat in a paddock until Mike Finn bought them and they went back to Perth for the latest batch to be built by Cottesloe Yachts.

The moulds are still there.
