KNOW YOUR OFFICERS

As the Squadron's overall membership is now approaching 1,400, it surely must be difficult, for the newer members at least, to know the people who are in charge of the welfare and conduct of the affairs of the Club. With the Annual General Meeting with its attendant elections only weeks away, it is probably timely to run this item now.

KNOW YOUR OFFICERS ...

Commodore (Retiring). Cooling, Dr. Max S., present yacht (motor) "Carinya", previously "Marlin". Max is a General Practitioner.

Commodore (Elect). Tedmanson, Wilbur J., previously owned yacht (sailboat) "Galatea" and won everything about the place in racing, now building 35 footer. Wilbur is an Engineer with Campbelltown Corporation.

Vice Commodore (Elect). Harniman, W.R. (Bill), now owns yacht "Nyroca", previously "Jeannie Clair", raced as navigator with Keith Flint's "Scimitar". Bill is looking for all round improvement to Squadron facilities both yachting and social and improved relations with other local and interstate clubs. Bill is a Senior Special Magistrate.

Rear Commodore (Elect). Flint, T.G. (Tom), now building a 29 footer, has sailed over 40 years in 12's, 18's, Tumlarens and Dragons, 37 years full membership of Squadron, national and international activities in yachting organisations, and wishes to make R.S.A.Y.S. best Royal Yacht Club in Australia. Tom's business is hardware.

Sailing Committee - Candidates 6, Positions 5

Adams, Keith; now sails ½ tonner "Cockatoo", previously "Wyuna", "Sea Urchin", "Rainbow", etc. Keith is convinced that S.A. lags behind other States in I.O.R. and level rating competition; wants all round raising of standard of measuring and control, and Olympic type courses. Keith holds an M.B.E., has been a professional soldier and is now an investor in urban and rural interests.

Gibson, Austin; keen Dragon yachtsman now racing "Sea Joy V". He is willing to share the burden of the preparation and conduct of the 1977 Prince Philip Cup to be sailed here. Austin is a former State High Hurdles Champion and former President of S.A.Y.R.A. Finance Corporation of Australia use his talents on work days.
