

12:

About People

By LADY KITTY

The engagement is announced of Nancy Berners, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Totton, of North Adelaide, to Michael Curtenay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Kempe, of Lindsay, Renmark.

After a short visit to Adelaide, Mr. and Mrs. Nowell Twopeny left by car yesterday, to return to their station home, The Gunyah, Wilmington.

The engagement is announced of Pamela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stow-Smith, of Toorak East, and Geoffrey Gerald, son of Mrs. G. A. W. Pope, of North Adelaide, and the late Mr. Pope.

Mrs. G. S. Melrose has returned to Willogoleche, Hallett, after spending a week in Adelaide at the South Australian Hotel. She is hoping for a flying visit next year from her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rutherford Gillespie, who are busy settling into their new home in Castle Douglas, Scotland. (Before her marriage, Mrs. Gillespie was Miss Janet Melrose.)

Several yachting parties have been arranged for the opening of the Royal SA Yacht Squadron season on Saturday. After taking the salute aboard the Sir Wallace Bruce the commodore (Mr. Henry Rymill) will entertain on Nyroca, Dr. A. L. Tostevin's launch. The Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress (Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rymill) have invited guests aboard Avocet; among them will be friends of their daughter Rosemary. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kemp will entertain on Nymphaea, with their daughters Susan and Rosemary; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Verco in Nautilus. Miss Pam Hardy will be hostess for her brother Mr. Tom Hardy on Lialeeta (their guests will include Miss Helen Jordan and her fiance Mr. David Hardy, and Miss Mary Stead and her fiance Mr. Donald Haselgrove). Among others in the sail-past will be Mr. and Mrs. Tom Leppinus in their launch Cooralea; Dr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Verco, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bastian, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hannan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kemp (who will take out Mr. James Taylor's yacht Ingrid), Mr. and Mrs. Colin Haselgrove, and Mr. George Mayne.