

Yacht sold for £4,500

The well-known SA motor cruiser Cygnus has been sold to a Sydney business man for £4,500.

The yacht was owned by Port Lincoln yachtsman George Mayne, who competed in the recent Sydney-Hobart race in Pavana.

Cygnus was purchased by Mr. G. Esdels, of Beauty Point, Sydney.

The cruiser, which had been idle for some months, was completely reconditioned by engineers of Karfix Engineering Ltd. before sailing early today for Sydney.

The crew comprised Captain T. Hammond, of Sydney, and Messrs. R. J. Scallery, R. Paltridge, and C. Wells, of Adelaide.
