

Boat Naming Celebrations

Annie and John's grandson James Phillip Drury, gets the feel of Miss V at a tender age.
Photo: Langdon Hamlyn

A combined celebration of naming and welcoming three new Squadron boats attracted a large crowd of well wishers on August 26. It was a memorable day for proud owners, Barbara Adams, Ivory Lady, Annie Rogers and John Phillips, Miss V, and Keith Flint, Aquilla, as they celebrated their latest voyages of exploration – getting to know their new boats. We wish them fair winds and kindly seas.

Master of Ceremonies Peter Kelly, The Commodore Annie Rogers, and Barbara with her granddaughter Kahlia Wilkey gather on the foredeck of Ivory Lady.
Photo: Langdon Hamlyn

Keith wets Aquilla's anchor with a fizzy drop.
Photo: Paddy O'Rourke

YSA Volunteer of the Year 2006-07 Langdon Hamlyn

Squadron Member Langdon Hamlyn's contribution to our club is well known. If you don't see him behind the lens of his camera, capturing every aspect of Squadron and SA sailing life, then you see him as the clown at Flotilla For Kids, marshalling boats in the fleet.

He is also very involved in racing organisation and recently, web design. In this magazine he has lifted the quality of photos to that of the text, so that SQ proudly compare with any club or commercial yachting mag in the country.

Langdon contributes heavily to the Trailer

Sailer Association of SA, of which he is also a member. Langdon owns and sail the trailer sailer Toyot. Of the many dedicated volunteers to South Australian yachting, Langdon's recent efforts have been outstanding and he is a deserved and much respected winner of the James Boucaut Award for Service to Yachting.

Congratulations also to Geoff Boettcher, owner skipper of Hardy's Secret Men's Business, 2006-07 YSA Sailor of the Year. Geoff, from the CYCSA, had an outstanding racing season in South Australia's fastest racing yacht.

Jim Boucaut presents the Volunteer of the Year Award to Langdon Hamlyn. Congratulations Langdon! Photo: Langdon Hamlyn!