

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN YACHT CLUB.

TO THE EDITOR.

Sir—I beg to call attention to the case Sinclair v. Quin tried in the Local Court, Port Adelaide, on the 7th inst. Sinclair summoned Quin for stakes held by him re race between Banshee and Jane ; and it appears remarkable that the Commodore is the defendant and the Vice-Commodore the attorney for the defendant. Surely this is unusual in Yacht clubs.

I am, Sir, &c., YACHTSMAN

Port Adelaide, November 15.

P.B.—Can you inform me when Government officers are subpoenaed if their fee for attendance in Court go to the revenue.
