

by the express on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Henry Dutton, of Anlaby station, returned from Melbourne by the Oroya on Thursday. Mr. Dutton went as far as the Victorian capital in his yacht Mavis. It was his intention to go for a cruise in the yacht round the Tasmanian coast, and probably then to New Zealand, but illness compelled him to abandon the trip.

The Rev. J. Robertson, M.A., mentioned at the Christian Endeavor Convention on

pletely by sun minated and
Only one Ru searchlight, a
surely manne
patrolling the
all the other basin. Even was clear, an
The Russian
of the Colum
Japanese in t
The corres
witch and the
ashore to pr