

85 sail past at Harbor

By W. J. H.

Hundreds of people watched 85 power and sailing craft sail past the official launch at the opening of the Royal SA Yacht Squadron this afternoon.

The Governor, Sir Robert George, and Lady George were among the official guests in the Harbors Board tug Tancred, who watched the boats salute the Commodore, Mr. H. Rymill.

During the salute Vanessa had 12 ft. of her mast snapped off when she and African Queen collided.

Sir Robert and Lady George were later entertained by the vice-commodore, Dr. A. L. Tostevin, and the rear commodore, Mr. J. Taylor, in the yachts Nyroca and Ingrid.

Win for girl

A girl, Miss Margaret Thiem, won the cadet dinghy race at Largs Bay from a fleet of 12 starters. Sailing Crusader, she also took fastest time by a good margin. Bonito and Tonto filled the minor positions.

The sharpie event resulted in a win for Apex (R. Northey). Wingin (A. Deed) filled second position, and took fastest time.

Father and son took the first two positions in the Brighton and Seacliff sharpie race for the W. Parson's Trophy.

Scuttlekeg, sailed by P. Malone, sen., won from Torment (P. Malone, jun.), by 13 sec., with Zest (D. Walker), 10 sec. away third. Zest was the fastest boat.

Although beating the next boat by 3½ min. across the finishing line, Heather II, only gained third position in the handicap race tion in the handicap race sponsored by the Glenelg Sailing Club this afternoon. The event was won by Chepica (J. Parrington).